Admiralty-Office, May 29. 1779.

Extract of a Letter from the Honourable Vice-Admiral Byron to Mr. Stephens, dated on Board His Majesty's Ship the Princess Royal, off St. Lucia, the 2d of April, 1779; received the 28th Instant.

THE Ship British King, in the Service of the Treasury, being bound from hence to Cork, I take the Opportunity to give Their Lordships some Account of the Proceedings of His Majesty's Ships under my Command.

The Squadron under Commodore Rowley having arrived from England on the 12th of February, in good Condition, I sent him, with the Ships* named in the Margin, to cruize to Windward of Martinique, in Hopes of preventing a Junction between the Ships expected from France and those at Fort Royal; he sailed upon that Service the 19th of February, but was recalled a few Days after upon my receiving certain Advice of M. De Grasse, with Four or Five Sail of the Line, some Frigates and Store-ships, having got safe to Martinique. Since then Detachments from the Fleet have occasionally cruized to Windward, and others between the Islands of St. Lucia and Martinique, for intercepting such of the Enemy's Vessels as might attempt that Channel, and at same Time to give Protection to our small Craft, when reconnoitring the Strength and Position of the French Squadron in Fort Royal Bay; one of these Detachments, under Command of Captain Griffith, was carried greatly to Leeward by the Current the 15th of last Month; their Situation must have been observed from Martinique, and I think the Prospect of these Ships not being able to regain this Anchorage probably occasioned the Enemy to make a Movement; for M. D'Estaing with Four other Flag-Officers, and Fifteen Sail of the Line, with some Frigates and small Vessels, having previously embarked a Number of Troops, came out of Fort Royal Bay the Morning of the 18th, at which Time several of the Ships under my Command, that had been cruizing, were taking in a Supply of Water at the Cul de Sac, and Captain Sawyer, with Three Sail of the Line and a Fifty Gun Ship, was to Windward of Martinique. With the rest of our Force I slipt and put to Sea the Moment the French Squadron was discovered, and made for them with all possible Expedition; but although equal in Number and Strength to the Ships I had collected, they returned to the Protection of their Batteries, without putting it in my Power to bring them to Action. I stood close in with Fort Royal next Morning, and had a full View of the Enemy's Batteries and Ships; but their only Movement upon our Approach was to get under Sail, and work farther into the Bay; I therefore tacked, and stretched towards this Place, but a strong Lee Current kept the Squad on several Days at Sea.

The Frigates that are upon this Station have been kept cruizing to Windward of Barbadoes, and among the Islands; but no Prize of Consequence has been taken by any of them, except the ship Governor Trumbull, an American Privateer of Twenty Guns and One Hundred and Fifty Men, which the Venus took off St. Christopher's the 6th of last Month, after several Hours Chace.

Admiralty Office, May 29, 1779.

Extract of a Letter from Rear Admiral Drake to Mr. Stephens. Dated, Buffalo, Downes, May 22, 1779.

THE French Snow Privateer, which was brought into the Downes Yeſterday, proves to be the Dunkirk of that Port, mounting 18 Six-pounders, and 96 Men: She was taken on her Paſſage from the Northward to Dunkirk by Lieutenant Cook, whom I had appointed to command the Fairy during the Abſence of Leave their Lordſhips had granted to Captain Frederick. The Mate of that Sloop, who was put on Board the Privateer to take Charge of her, acquaints me, that he loſt Company with the Amphitrite, Fairy and the other Cruizers, and thought it adviſeable to bring her into the Downes. He informs me likewiſe, that Lieutenant Inglis of the Griffin Cutter had taken a Brig Privateer, mounting 16 Six-pounders; that on Board the two Veſſels there were eight Ranſomers. I ſhall not have it in my Power to give their Lordſhips any farther Particulars till the Arrival of Captain Gaborian of the Amphitrite.

St. James's, May 29.

The following Addreſs of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland having been tranſmitted to the Lord Viſcount Weymouth, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Earl of Dalhouſie, His Majeſty's High Commiſſioner, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in National Aſſembly, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our reſpectful Congratulations upon the Birth of another Prince. While we rejoice in every Event which augments the domeſtick Felicity of a Sovereign endeared to His People by His amiable Virtues, we regard the Encreaſe of your Majeſty's Family, as an additional Security to our Religion and Liberties; and we number, with much Satisfaction and Thankfulneſs, the Princes born in the Royal Family, as raiſed up by the Divine Providence, to afford your Subjects the happy Proſpect of enjoying, through a Courſe of Ages, under the Protection of your Majeſty's Deſcendents, that full Exerciſe of the Proteſtant Religion, and thoſe Civil Immunities, which the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover was called to maintain, and of which your Majeſty has been the faithful Guardian.

In this Seaſon of National Exertion, and public Alarm, we conſider it as our Duty to expreſs an inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government: And we are happy in being able to aſſure your Majeſty, that the ſame Sentiments of Duty and Affection, which we entertain, prevail amongſt the People committed to our Care. That Loyalty, which propted the Exertions lately made in this Part of your Majeſty's Dominions for Internal Security, and the Support of the National Honour, remains unſhaken. The open Aſſiſtance given by the natural Rivals and Enemies of Great Britain to the Rebellious Colonies in North America, has united all Ranks of Men in Zeal for the common Cauſe. They rejoice in the Succeſs which attends your Majeſty's Arms in different Quarters of the World: They confide in the Wiſdom and Vigour of your Majeſty's Councils; and they, truſting in the Almighty, look forward with the Solicitude of good Citizens, to a happy Termination of the preſent Commotions.

It ſhall be our conſtant Study to cheriſh theſe Sentiments of Loyalty in the Breaſts of our People; and to approve ourſelves the dutiful Servants of the Prince of Peace, by inſpiring thoſe, over whom we have Influence, with the warmeſt Senſe of the Security and Felicity which they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild, legal and paternal Adminiſtration.

That the Lord God of Hoſts may go forth with your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies, and crown them with Victory: That He may defeat the Deſigns of our Enemies: That He may open the Eyes of our deluded Fellow-Subjects: That the Authority of Law, and the Bleſſings of Liberty, may be ſpeedily felt and acknowledged throughout all the Parts of this extended Empire: And that your Majeſty may long reign the Sovereign of a Free, a Happy, and United People, are the earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful,
moſt obedient,
and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders met in this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by
